

commercial photography - testimonials

"Dan cares so much about the quality of his work. He is a serious expert in his field and ensures that his output is always to his own exacting standards. I am very pleased to be able to recommend Dan's work."

Consultant, DBM Ltd

"received the images - fantastic job ! - just what we needed - sincere thanks for all your help"

Advertising & Promotions Manager, Salvation Army Trading Company

"Dan is the ultimate professional. He was known as 'the' person in DRS who could take any shot and get great PR out of it. Apart from being approachable and likeable he could see how a photo could have real potential and would prepare and organise accordingly. His savvy and real 'feel' for the subject makes him the ideal photographer for almost any occasion! I would have no hesitation in recommending Dan"

International Business Development Manager, DRS Data Services Ltd

"the images look terrific ! - I'm very pleased"

Marketing Executive, English Heritage

"I worked with Dan on several projects and always found him to be professional and a pleasure to work with. When I started to see his photography skills I was truly amazed. The skills apparent in his business life I had seen, attention to detail and thoroughness were also there in his pictures. Not only that but he is truly gifted and has the ability to get images most of us only dream of."

Senior Account Manager, Data Research Services Ltd

"you not only completed the assignment professionally and sympathetically - but your record of my company's work always creates positive feedback during meetings with clients"

Director, The School Grounds Consultancy

Dan Evans Photography

landscapes & commercial photography